

Intervening with Post-Secondary Environments: Using Policy to Cultivate Mentally Healthy Campus Communities

Wednesday October 26th, 2011
2:00–3:30pm

This webinar features:

Stephen Smith

Director of Mental Health Promotion,
Ministry of Health Services

Dan Reist

Assistant Director of Knowledge
Exchange, Centre for Addictions
Research of BC

Interviewed by Jonny Morris

Acting Director of Mental Health
Promotion, Canadian Mental Health
Association, BC Division

Stephen and Dan have been asked to speak to the following questions:

- How can administrators better seize opportunities to incorporate mental health promotion into their campus policies?
- How can a systemic and socio-ecological lens provide a more comprehensive approach for mental health and substance use policies?
- What are some of the anticipated challenges and opportunities of this approach?
- What success stories exist related to positive mental health approaches in post-secondary environments?

Following this, Stephen and Dan will participate in an interview designed to build upon their comments further. The webinar will close with a moderated Q/A session for webinar attendees.

This event is part of a series of programming in advance of the Healthy Minds/Healthy Campuses Summit 2011. This year's summit is scheduled for November 17–19, 2011 at the Justice Institute of BC.
